Memo

Both incoming and sheared documents should show in a table first before you can then view and download. On the table it will shows the sender image, department, name, unit, location, date, signature of the sender and then memo itself.

Let it have a priority level of high medium and low which will be populating a color of RED, GREE and YELLOW respectively at the receiving end, depending on the priority the sender put there